Dog leads are an excellent tool for training gundog puppies. Training your dog to be comfortable with a lead will provide you greater control when out on the field, as it is useful for calming your dog down if he gets too excited, distracted, or does something wrong. Some types of lead are also great for teaching your dog to heel.

Dogs are never too young, or old, to start training! Because dogs are always learning, teaching a dog that certain behaviour results in good things happening means they'll be more likely to behave that way again.
Training your dog is an important part of being a responsible owner, because it can prevent unwanted behaviour problems developing.

Training the Best Dog Ever, originally published in hardcover as The Love That Dog Training Program, is a book based on love and kindness. It features a program of positive reinforcement and no-fail techniques that author Dawn Sylvia-Stasiewicz used to train the White House dog, Bo Obama, and each of Senator Ted Kennedy's dogs, among countless others. Training the Best Dog Ever relies on trust and treats, not choke collars; on bonding, not leash-yanking or reprimanding. The five-week training program takes only 10 to 20 minutes of practice a day and works both for puppies and for adult dogs that need to be trained out of bad habits. Illustrated with step-by-step photographs, the book covers hand-feeding; crate and potty training; and basic cues—sit, stay, come here—as well as more complex goals, such as bite inhibition and water safety. It shows how to avoid or correct typical behavior problems, including jumping, barking, and leash-pulling. Plus: how to make your dog comfortable in the world—a dog that knows how to behave in a vet's office, is at ease around strangers, and more. In other words, the best dog ever.

This book you will help you enjoy the journey that you can take your dog. You will have more of a chance to bond together and form a
