This reissue of the childhood classic I Know a Lot of Things is a celebration of all the new and intriguing knowledge children delight in possessing. Written from the simplicity of a child's perspective, the plain-but-powerful text voices important childhood knowledge such as "I know when I look in the mirror, what I see is me" and that "dogs go bowwow and that

I Know A Lot is another big hit by this author/illustrator duo. The storyline is simple, supportive, encouraging, and fun. The writing has a nice cadence so it is a fun read for those reading aloud to smaller children. There are not too many words on each page which I think is great for infants and toddlers who are eager page turners.
