In most subjects, academic writing is the biggest factor determining a student ' s degree classification. Nothing affects a student ' s academic prospects more than their ability to write well. Higher education subjects are defined through academic texts. If a student is to fully grasp their subject they need to understand how it ' s written.

Using reflective writing in your academic work Even if it is not immediately obvious from the description, many of the academic assignments you will need to complete contain some form of reflection. You might be asked to write an essay where you respond to a piece of text or an image, relate a topic to your own experiences or discuss whether a certain model fits with your own views.

Reflective writing - Reflective Practice Toolkit

Academic reflections or reflective writing completed for assessment often require a clear structure. Contrary to some people ' s belief, reflection is not just a personal diary talking about your day and your feelings. Both the language and the structure are important for academic reflective writing.
