The greatest challenge to American democracy is arguably the feebleness of the people.

Democracy is supposed to represent the interests of the people, as is shown by its name ("rule by the people").

The most important problem in democracy is the growing social and economic inequality
among the people.

Although all the citizens have the right to vote and fight elections only rich people have a chance to win the election.
