The Kingdom Driven Entrepreneur's Guide: Doing Business ...

In November 2012, Antonina Geer and I, two strangers brought together by God, launched a movement called Kingdom Driven Entrepreneur. It started with a simple word from the Lord seven months prior: "It's a community, it's a movement, and it starts with a book." Armed with that one revelation and instruction, we put our faith into action and co-authored The Kingdom Driven Entrepreneur: Doing Business God's Way.

The Kingdom Driven Entrepreneur's Guide: Doing Business ...

Being a Kingdom Driven Entrepreneur is simply not the same thing as being a Christian who happens to own a business. The world's way of doing business is highly competitive (dog eat dog), self-driven, self-reliant, and primarily motivated by money. When you're doing business the way of the King of kings, it's cooperative and interdependent, led and empowered by Holy Spirit, and motivated by love.

"I'm excited about Faith Driven Entrepreneur. Anyone who is following the example of their creator God can find echoes of their work in this book." --Lecrae Entrepreneurship can be a lonely journey. But it doesn't need to be. God has a purpose and a plan for all those entrepreneurial dreams and creative gifts he gave you. The work you do today--the company you've built, the employees you work with, the customers you serve, the shareholders you report to, all of it--serves as an active part of what God wants to accomplish on earth. You are not alone in this journey. Join other faith-driven entrepreneurs as, together, we identify the values, habits, and traits that empower us to successfully build businesses, serve our communities, and faithfully pursue a loving relationship with God; read stories that exemplify how those values, habits, and traits unfold in everyday life; and discover the potential God wants to unleash through our work. Each book purchase includes access to the eight-session Faith Driven Entrepreneur video series, a discussion guide to encourage conversation among peers, and an invitation to join a Faith Driven Entrepreneur Group to meet other like-minded entrepreneurs.

"Wealth creation is a key to how the kingdom of God advances...read this and become part of the movement!" "Lance Wallnau Dennis Peacocke presents twelve principles of management, growth, and productivity that can bring lasting change into the lives and cultures of all who apply them. This book is divided into two sections. The first deals with the theological issues affecting the individual believer and his or her role in the marketplace. The second takes those same issues and principles into the political and economic world in which we live. Dennis wants to reverse our current slide into chaos and economic bondage by encouraging the practice of God's truths in the marketplace and by electing leaders who will do so in our public institutions. Whoever produces both capital and human justice will lead the twenty-first century. This book builds a biblical foundation that for the establishment of a compassionate, kingdom-based free-enterprise economic system.

The Kingdom Driven Entrepreneur's Guide to Goal Setting: Second Edition

More than one quarter of the world's people have little or no opportunity to hear the gospel. While few of the unreached care to investigate the claims of Christ, they are concerned about their own economic advancement. This is an opportunity for the gospel. On Kingdom Business proposes a new model for using business in missions: kingdom entrepreneurship. Kingdom entrepreneurs are "job-makers," starting for-profit businesses of all sizes/real businesses that meet real needs. On Kingdom Business provides a conceptual foundation for kingdom entrepreneurship and explores its contemporary development using case studies of kingdom businesses and reflecting on the lessons kingdom entrepreneurs have already learned. "Probably nowhere can you find the range of actual examples and keen insights offered by the spectrum of contributors to this landmark book. We are deeply indebted to both the contributors and the editors for so stout and comprehensive a set of documents, on so crucial and yet baffling a challenge." " Ralph D. Winter, President, William Carey International University "Forthright, practical, and compelling! On Kingdom Business addresses the tough questions surrounding profit making in the name of Christ, and convincingly validates the fact that authentic ministry can indeed take place within the context of authentic business." " Christian Overman, Executive Director, Worldview Matters, Inc. "Kingdom entrepreneurship has come of age as global Christian businessmen and women unite to extol the virtues of investing in God's kingdom. On Kingdom Business is definitely recommended reading for discerning Christians committed to Great Commission ministry." " John Vong, Research Director, Geneva Global, Inc. "Businessmen and women are fulfilling the Great Commission by more than giving money. On Kingdom Business tells their stories and reveals the methodologies that work in today's world." " John H. Warton, Jr., International Director, Business Professional Network "Business is not a necessary evil or a cover for the 'real work' of missions but a way to create investments, jobs, economic vitality, and a hearing for a credible gospel. It is hard work, but these pages are filled with the examples and learnings of extraordinary men and women/evangelistic entrepreneurs." " Fred Smith, President, The Gathering "Today's mission context demands the mobilization of tens of thousands of businessmen and women committed to spreading the gospel through genuine business. On Kingdom Business reveals several best practice models and discusses key issues related to kingdom entrepreneurship." " Chuck Madinger, Missions Pastor, Southland Christian Church, Lexington, Kentucky

Well Done provides any business leader insights on how to strive for excellence in building their business and ordering their life. Although the phrase "Well Done" has a noble connotation to it, many business leaders, including Ken Gosnell, have a difficult time describing and defining what those words look like in the life of a business that is led by a person of faith. In Well Done, Ken describes the twelve biblical business principles that can help any leader who desires to grow their business and its Kingdom impact. These principles help to create a strategic roadmap for leaders to hear the words "Well Done" at the end of their journey. Every leader deserves to hear the words Well Done. Life is too short, and business is too difficult to work throughout life and miss what matters most.

"A practical and powerful resource for any business owner who desires to do business led and empowered by God."Shae Bynes, author of The Kingdom Driven Entrepreneur's Guide While Christian entrepreneurs start their days with prayer, the hustle and bustle of running their own businesses quickly takes focus away from their vital partnership with the almighty God. As a result, prayers for business are often broad, unfocused, and strictly tied to the entrepreneur's vision of ideal results. The Prayer Powered Entrepreneur model walks entrepreneurs through 31 days of recognizing God as CEO through an inside-out system of praying for transformation: In themselves Their relationship with God Their relationship with others Their relationship with their business Culminating in praying for the impact they want their business to have in the world. Kim Avery encourages entrepreneurs to keep God at the center of everything, praying in alignment with the things He has already promised, and anticipating His daily activity in their lives. During this month-long journey, business owners learn how to build a better business, live a better life, and make a bigger impact/all through the simple practice of inside-out prayer. "Kim Avery gives everyone who is called into such an entrepreneurial challenge a wealth of wisdom and an easy-to-implement practical tool to keep one going. Don't miss out on The Prayer Powered Entrepreneur! One does not have to face this challenge alone."Bob Allums, director of A Praying Life Seminars from seeJesus Ministries, seeJesus.net "A gold mine of inspiration, encouragement, and next steps toward a deeper relationship with God."Marnie Swedberg, international leadership mentor & conference speaker

"An introspective look at building a startup with long-range vision.... No matter what way one chooses to digest the information, it will certainly be of value to businesspeople at all levels of experience." - Kirkus Reviews Some people succeed in the business world; others succeed in the social sector. Very few mesh both, succeed, and create real social change. Whether you are already an entrepreneur or are thinking about an entrepreneurial journey, The Purpose-Driven Social Entrepreneur is a must-read to set yourself on a path of intention and success. In this book, Karim covers the formative early steps that help you reflect on your purpose and orient your mindset for the journey, and how to adjust and enhance your business over time. Written by a 26-year-old millennial entrepreneur who has built a multimillion-dollar education company and raised millions of dollars in philanthropy, this book is simple to follow, and a key for anyone who is ready to take their business and life to the next level. Karim's journey proves it's possible to succeed as a business person and create lasting social change. In this book, he shows us how we can achieve it too.
