29 January 2020 marks the two hundredth anniversary of the death of King George III. His nearly sixty-year reign was then the longest ever in the United Kingdom. He has only been surpassed by his granddaughter Queen Victoria and, more recently, her great-great-granddaughter Queen Elizabeth II. During his life and reign, George III was responsible for reigniting royal interest in Windsor Castle, which had been much overlooked after the House of Hanover came to the throne of the United Kingdom ...
